Dear Friends,

There are Career Counseling and Internship services provided at WIUU on regular basis. Career Counseling Business internship was created at WIUU as a step toward reaching the goals of becoming the leading educational establishment in research and education. The main purpose of internship is providing students with practical experience in business according to international and Ukrainian standards.

Career counselors organize workshops on resume writing, job interviewing techniques and other relevant issues. They advise students and graduates on career planning and job opportunities.

Career counselors expose qualified WIUU students to their potential future employers and form links between the University and business community. Internships are designed to prepare applicants for future jobs and careers; help you accomplish your professional goals; assist you in being a more competitive candidate in your future job search. You can also use an internship to determine if you have an interest in a particular career, create a network of contacts, and gain credits. It is also your chance to find permanent, paid employment with the company in which you interned. Thus, employers also benefit as experienced interns need little or no training when they begin full-time regular employment.

We also invite our graduates to join WIUU Alumni Club for their future carrier development and a network of contacts.

I hope that this Catalogue will provide you with helpful information on different issues of Internship and Alumni. I look forward to seeing you on campus.

Danone Ukraine

Ivanna Smyrnova, Marketing specialist in Danone (WIUU graduate - 2013)

I’ve been working in Danone for about a year. I have found it trough WIUU career department. And, to be honest, from the very beginning I fell in love with Danone Company. I was hired as a Marketing Trainee and had a great opportunity to combine my studies and work. Which is extremely important! I saw an international company from inside. Of course, we have talked about the structure in university, but to “touch” it in real life is absolutely different thing! I understood the correlation between the departments, their roles, processes, and how it all actually works. Danone is a great company where you can get a huge experience in FMCG industry; communicate with real professionals and just great people. It is very important that everything what is happening in Danone – is happening locally. All decisions are taken here in Ukraine. It’s really huge experience and you have much more space for actions and development. Here you can create and make decisions. It is the company that has great values and mission; the company that makes people’s life better and healthier. It is a place where you feel yourself as a part of something important; with very warm atmosphere and great team! I have found myself here, found the field where I would like to operate in Marketing! Moreover I am planning to develop myself in this company further. What can I say………. I love my job! And I am extremally happy to be a part of Danone Ukraine!

Yakovlieva Alina, Marketing trainee at Danone (WIUU graduate - 2013)

In 2013 I have got my Bachelor’s degree in WIUU. During my senior year at the university I was working at marketing research company “Ukrainian Marketing Group (UMG) International”. I worked in qualitative research department for 6 months. In May 2013 I left UMG and started working at the Marketing Department at Danone company. The knowledge I acquired in the university has helped me a lot in getting this particular job. Moreover, I have implemented everything I know at these job position.

About Porsche

It is a unique company with strong ideals. Our values and philosophies permeate through everything we do to ensure that we always remain true to our principles. We constantly meet our own high demands and have a definite idea about who we are and how we approach things. As a result, despite what others may be doing, we at Porsche actively seek to stretch boundaries and are committed to continual improvement. Based on the principle of achieving maximum output from minimum input, this race-inspired philosophy is integral to each and every one of our cars. We call it Porsche Intelligent Performance.

Ms. Maria Panfilova, HR Director (2012)

Students of WIUU are rather purposeful with reasonably good theoretical understanding of business processes. Obviously, they lack some practical experience and particularly for this purpose they are undertaking an internship. Personally I appreciate their proactive position.

In AES we have some success stories of WIUU graduates, when they started from the entry level position as administrative support staff and then rapidly moved their career path.

Facts about the company:

The AES Corporation is a global power company with generation and distribution businesses. Through the diverse portfolio of thermal and renewable fuel sources, the corporation provides affordable and sustainable energy in 27 countries. AES workforce of 27,000 people is committed to operational excellence and meeting the world’s changing power needs.

AES acquired two distribution companies in Ukraine in 2001 - Kyivoblenergo and Rivneoblenergo - which today serve approximately 1.2 million customers. Their two utilities bring electricity to homes and schools, and to critical industries including paper mills, chemical companies, flower exporters, beverage companies and the Boryspil international airport.

The AES companies in Ukraine are almost the only companies in the energy sphere which have introduced the new management system SAP, created a call centre and a help line.

Mr. Joahim Bentz, Marketing Manager of Nivea Company in Ukraine (2012)

For jobs in my department (Marketing) I can say that students are nicely prepared. First BIG advantage is English, this is a key objective criteria – you can be the brightest student with great knowledge, not knowing English you will fail in the first round of interviews. Then regarding such factors like hard skills – here I think students are nicely prepared (of course it depends on each individual student if he/she really learned, but the opportunity is there). Personally I like that the university pays so much attention to teamwork and business plan projects. Teamwork is important as more and more company projects are run in groups and it is good to have experienced even difficult conflict team-situations. The business plan projects help to see and understand the big picture which is very helpful too.

WIUU students and L’Oreal

Over 50,000 students from over 280 universities in 45 different countries have already put themselves in the shoes of an International Brand Manager. Annual International L’Oreal Brandstorm competition is a unique opportunity for students to show their talents and knowledge, it is chance to become a marketing brand manager in international marketing competition and present a new product line for an existing L’Oreal brand. Along with other teams from WIUU I participated in this competition. I can’t even describe how useful this experience was. All the work that the team and its separate members have done will always remain useful in our future careers. We clearly realized all the necessary qualities that a good manager would need and how to use our knowledge to its best. L’Oreal marketing game is a great opportunity for students to activate their abilities, greatly develop those abilities and actually enjoy the work that is done.

Ms. Kateryna Horpynchuk, IV year WIUU student (2012)
Ms. Ternova Olena, Talent Acquisition Specialist (2012)

We are happy about WIUU’s level of education and always welcome students for internship. Everyone I was happy to interview was drive, enthusiastic and motivated for a job. Your students have knowledge, which is significantly closer to business needs, than peers from government universities. I heard only the best about the books you read, the subjects you learn and the level of WIUU teachers. Nevertheless keep in mind that even high quality knowledge is far from real business experience. So the practice of internships will fill these gaps. We also noticed that some students spend their time in after class activities: student unions, students media, business workshops. It gives them valuable experience, which could be helpful during interviews.

As well as consumer healthcare products. Pfizer operates in three business segments: Human Health, Consumer Health and Animal Health. It also operates several other businesses.

Our students in Pfizer

I was an intern in Pfizer for two months during summer 2011. This was an extremely valuable experience that helped me in my future professional life. During the internship, I was given an opportunity to work for several departments: Business Development, HR, Veterinary, and Procurement. It helped me to learn the organizational structure and get a better understanding of the company’s operations. As a result of this internship, I gained useful skills and competencies and grasped the conception of working process in general. Pfizer is a leading international company which has an exceptional team of competent, good-hearted professionals on board. From the first day of internship I felt the friendly atmosphere and was able to get acquainted with a lot of good people just in couple of days. If you are looking for an internship in a company that will help you to gain new valuable skills and knowledge, I would definitely recommend Pfizer.

I was hired not as an Intern, but as a Research Analyst due to my previous experience in this field. Of course, I have a huge responsibility for finishing projects on time and meeting the requirements of our partners, such as Philip Morris International, Samsung, British American Tobacco, Freshtel, Boehringer Ingelheim, Bayer, Novartis, Pfizer, and many others. Olena Zhogol - WIUU graduate (2013)

I have worked at advertising Agency “Dion” as a client service manager. I enjoyed it so much. There were a really useful at WIUU that helped me to achieve best results in my work experience. After so various projects and experience I gained through all my courses, I had no problems either with documental work or with communication with the clients.

Mariana Shatova - WIUU Graduate (2010)

“Students start off with a vision of their ideal job, but this vision is really just a guess based on theory. During my student life I took internship program couple of times. Tetra Pak, Chumak, Peace Corps – these are all big companies that I had a chance to “test” on my own. I’m glad that WIUU provides this unique opportunity to undergo internship in big international companies. Having internship is much better than not having one. After graduation your CV is not a blank piece of paper, also it is a great way to jump into corporate environment, work with co-workers of all ages, and develop presentation skills. You may not personally see a difference in yourself, but I promise you will become a bit wiser, more mature, more confident, and a better candidate for the next internship or a full-time job. No one’s career path is a straight line. This is your chance to drive different positions to see which ride you enjoy most. Use it!”

Juliya Budynka - WIUU Graduate (2010)

“When 17 I felt like the whole world was at my feet. I had ambitions, dreams and goals. It was time for me to make a choice that would apparently influence my future. WIUU is a perfect place for those who doesn’t accept “the Soviet regime of teaching”, who search for the innovative approach, democracy, high level of education, deep involvement into the process itself and perfect perspectives for the future. Our University gave me a great opportunity to take internships in different spheres to better understand what I want to choose in future. Pfizer, Peace Corps and OTP Bank are the places where I was at as an intern. Marketing, Charitable department with Grants and Banking processes helped me to better understand the business from within and gave precious experience that helped me when getting a job. WIUU is a place that will give you a lot of prerogatives, good knowledge, unforgettable experience of internships and a lot of other interesting things. So, if you’re a part of this place – enjoy it.”
Kateryna Pryimachenko - General Manager, Neochimiki Ukraine, Ltd. - WIUU Graduate (2012)

“After years of graduation from the first university and working experience in various businesses, I recognised that I needed to gain access to the latest management know-how and to certify my professional qualification. The best opportunities which would help me to reach my goals were presented by the WIUU MBA program. I enjoyed the WIUU approach to adult education which includes flexible class-schedule (mostly evening or weekend classes), interesting teaching and learning methods (projects and cases studies) and emphasis on team-work activities. Strong student’s and professor’s commitment requirements made the studies interesting, complete and useful.

The MBA opened doors to new friendships and relationships with interesting people of different cultures. These friendships were born in the atmosphere of searching and absorbing new professional knowledge – a very special learning atmosphere I had never experienced before. I am deeply grateful to WIUU and professors for the knowledge and skills that were given to us.”

Roman Shatov - Implementation Manager, PJSC “Deutsche Bank DBU” – WIUU Graduate

“My name is Roman Shatov and I have been working with Deutsche Bank for over two challenging, but successful years. My current responsibilities mainly include Implementation of local and global deals and Product management tasks. The education and practical experience I received at our university allows me to feel confident in the highly professional, experienced world-wide Deutsche Bank team. Cooperation with foreign colleagues from absolutely different parts of the world allows me to further develop skills and knowledge of International Business received at WIUU.”

Olga Rotan - Samsung (WIUU student, 2012)

“Owing to Mark Savchuk my first impression of Marketing in general was very positive and it inspired me to move in that direction in my future career. Articles from Economist, colorful and substantial presentations, up-to-date information, that is displayed with strong knowledge; life situations, presented with humor and teacher’s charisma make Mark’s classes unforgettable”.

Anastasiia Iefimova - PJSC Citibank, Kiev (WIUU student, 2010)

“WIUU provided me with great opportunity to study in international community where your teachers were not just simply foreigner and native speakers but also business people who actually worked in international business environment and were willing to share their first-hand experience. So, if you want to work for international companies and you are looking for great experiences, WIUU is the place for you!”

Elizabeth Nudelman - American English Center (AEC) (WIUU student, 2010)

“WIUU has given me the greatest background of practical knowledge in business processes, management procedures and strategic planning. The most valuable thing I got from the University is my goal-oriented type of thinking and the general business outlook. Besides, I was taught the ability to think “out of the box” and the art to find optimal solutions for any problematic issues that arise within the organization. My professional skills in practical application of management functions, finance, marketing, HR, business ethics and other business components applied during my University years now make me a successful manager of a developing business.”

Yury Polgorodnyk - Daewoo International Corporation (WIUU student, 2011)

“During my Study in WIUU I had a great experience in both education and student life. I would describe university program as quite competitive on Ukrainian education market, it provides students with ability to work in groups, enhance critical thinking and decision-making. It is worth mentioning that student empowerment in WIUU is on a higher level than in most of other educational institutions. Of course knowledge of language can be improved here as well. University also encourages students to take part in different events of social and professional thematic. Personally I took a great pleasure from taking part at 2 economic conference. Also university staff really does help students find internship possibilities and study program on latest courses is mainly designed in such a manner that students are able to visit at least a part time job jointly with university classes.”

Illya Konovalov - Self-employed, Ponga.ua and other projects (WIUU student, 2011)

“What is valuable at WIUU is not even the knowledge itself, but the atmosphere that gives every student a chance to open his/her individuality, to open his/her mind. Projects, work in teams, numerous presentations and discussions, work on real problems etc., pure knowledge is nothing without all this, and that is what WIUU offers. It helps you to develop the skills you need to turn your ideas into reality.”
It is always hard to answer this kind of question, because, it mostly not about the university, but about the person him/herself, but, I would like to emphasize that all students that came to our company had a huge desire to learn something new. They are all very enthusiastic that is very important for our company, because, while interviewing the person, we sometimes focus our attention on the person’s desire to learn something new rather than on the person’s gaps in their fundamental knowledge. It seems to me that some universities, even the ones that give sound fundamental knowledge, don’t give students goals, aspiration and desires. It is great that your students have these qualities.

We are very satisfied with the cooperation we have with WIUU and are happy to host the WIUU students in Citi now and in the future.

Generally, WIUU students are recognized for their good level of English, good theoretical knowledge in different disciplines which they use in practice in our bank. They are well behaved and purposeful, eager to learn and take the responsibility for the work they do.

WIUU students perform a variety of different tasks, including, but not limited to the following: data collection on client due diligence, market data collection, assistance in client monitoring, assistance with preparation of various credit reviews, Know Your Customer forms updates. The most common departments the interns are usually placed in are the Corporate Bank, Global Transaction Services and Operations. We do enjoy working with WIUU students, otherwise we would not invite them. We think this cooperation is important both for the bank and for the students. For us it is important because by hosting students, along with getting extra help, we are creating our future pipeline. We get the opportunity to tell about ourselves, our culture, our values and we hope that Citi will be Employer of Choice for the talented graduates. Generally, we invite 1-2 top students of the university.

WIUU Internship at Citibank

“I’ve been with Citibank for approximately half a year and I feel proud to be here and to be a part of this multinational family. This is the place, where one can start an international career growth; this bank provides an opportunity to become a real professional, to become an example for others. Citi has a strong corporate culture, mutual respect and highly-motivating team spirit. I believe that it is a success and honor to represent a bank which traces its roots back to early 1820s. However, it is also a great responsibility for each of the member of the global team to carry the name of Citi and to hand one’s achievements and success to future generations. This bank seeks talented and bright people. You come here already academically well-prepared and with a particular experience in banking. A student or a potential employee should not be surprised that nobody is going to tell how to do the job, how to calculate financial ratios, how to perform financial analysis and modeling, how to estimate risks and attract customers, how to deal with different financial products and how the overall banking system works. This job can become complicated, when one doesn’t catch up with what is going on. Banking is a specific area of business and only those who have a pure understanding of it and are willing to learn on the job can meet the challenging tasks it offers. But the hard work, great efforts and healthy enthusiasm provide great rewards. I work with really great people that I really like and highly respect, I feel I add value to this corporation. All of the above keeps me here and I plan to build a career in Citi.”

Mr. Sergey Klochkov, General Director (2008)

We have collaborated with WIUU for the past 3 years. During this period many students had their internship in ClearWater. They were involved in various projects in several departments. All managers were satisfied with the skills demonstrated by the students and their theoretical knowledge in foreign-economic activity and marketing. The only area of weakness that we ever noted was a lack of practical skills. But that is what the internships are for. Students were highly motivated to learn. I hope that they have got some useful practical knowledge that would be beneficial for their future careers.

The students participated in several projects of the Company. For example, Nastya Godyna helped our Purchasing Manager to conduct negotiations with our foreign partners. She was good at writing e-mail letters in English and took part in discussing some changes in the contract of purchase. Alexander succeeded to gather necessary information for an important market research. WIUU students are always welcome to apply for a job in ClearWater.

The Electronic Information Center of the United Nations

Mr. Alexander Zatolokyn, Director and Coordinator of the UN program in Ukraine (2008)

The cooperation between the Electronic Information center of the UN and the Ukrainian-American Liberal Arts Institute “Wisconsin International University (USA) Ukraine” started in 2003. The creative stage of our cooperation became in 2004 with the opening of the Master-class in constant development. The Master-class in your institute was initiated by the coordinator of programs of the United Nations in Ukraine, Douglas Gardner. He was pleasantly amazed by the preparation of students of your institute, their level of knowledge, and especially that they possess a high level of English.

Facts about:

The Electronic Information Center of the UN was established 6 years ago, and was founded under the general frame project of the United Nations in Ukraine and the Center of Municipal management (Habitat) on the basis of Memorandum on Partnership and Cooperation between the UN in Ukraine and Centre of Municipal management. The motto of the project is “From the cooperation of the states to the cooperation of public organizations.” The aim of the Centers’ activities is to establish proper conditions to assure easy access of the groups (leaders of self-government in Ukraine, representatives of the public organizations, mass media and educational and academic establishments) to the informational sources of the UN.

Our students at the Electronic Information Center of the UN

Sophomore students of WIUU during their internship in the Informational Center of the UN in Ukraine and Center of municipal management (Habitat) were engaged into complex production work as managers of economic projects under the guidance of the Leader of TSEI UNO in Ukraine and TSMM (Habitat) Zatolokin Alexander Petrovich.

The main idea of the internship was to prepare future managers to efficient and high-quality work in the sphere of management of international economic projects and get an experience in cooperation with international financial institutions.

The result of the internship was the presentation to representatives of international public organizations. Implementation of the internship program gave students practical skills in analyses, writing and registration of international projects in terms of questions concerning steady economic development.

WIUU Internship at METRO Cash & Carry

“I’ve been working at METRO Cash & Carry since July of 2005. At first I was an intern at the Nonfood Purchasing Department. It was a real pleasure for me to work in a team of such professionals. Within those 2 months, while I was on practice, I fell in love with the company. It really gave me a lot. I gained priceless experience in a foreign company. When my practice came to an end in August I was very sad to leave.

I addressed the HR Department asking for a permanent position. After that I went through a couple of interviews and came back as an employee in November of 2005. Today I’m an HR Assistant. I am very pleased the company gave me an opportunity to continue my working here.”

I started working in this bank three years ago as an intern student, performing bank clerical work. The experience gained helped me to learn more about the banking system in general, improve my knowledge of management and grow professionally. I want to kindly thank my university for giving me this opportunity of internship, and I hope our students will keep getting such opportunities, which would be helpful for them to define their future line of work.”

Tetra Pak is the world leader in providing integrated processing-, packaging- and distribution solutions as well as complete lines in the food industry.

WIUU Internship at Tetra Pak

“Being both first year students and pioneers (from our university) at Tetra Pak made us feel responsible and resolute. It was my first internship, as well as Maryana’s and Yulia’s. To tell the truth, in the first couple of days we felt nervous and watched out not to make a mistake and embarrass ourselves. But how amazed we were when we actually “got into the company”, we felt its unique culture and environment. I thought- wow! This is the atmosphere I have always been looking forward to work in: freedom, progress, innovation and excitement about what you are doing. Furthermore, opportunities started to reveal. We were appointed to work in a great marketing project, and the work started…research via Internet, communicating with people on streets, gathering data, analyzing the information and eventually…our proposals and …final presentation on how to increase the sales of a determined product. This was all supported with different business meetings, cooperation with PR companies, and furthermore –working for Marketing Department at “Chumak Company”. After this internship I thought – so much experience…in a couple of weeks… we are lucky ones. Thank you to WIUU that we have a possibility to have internships in powerful successful leader-companies like Tetra Pak.”

“Last year I went to Volvo Ukraine LLC during my summer internship. Even though it was my first experience in international company, I’ve got a very serious task. It was a research that would benefit the whole company and I was trying to do my best in accomplishing it. I liked friendly atmosphere inside the company. I felt comfortable and confident at my workplace. I was treated like a company worker, as part of the team. If I had any problems, there were always people, who offered their help.

This winter I went to Volvo again. I was in the financial department and learned a lot of new information that is very beneficial for my future. I was working with financial statements of companies, contracts, took part at the meetings with customers, worked closely with Microsoft applications, especially Excel. I am very happy that the company gave me an opportunity to gain experience.”
